

ATLAS 2026 Annual Conference

March 31 & April 1, 2026

Join us for the 3rd Annual
UMD ATLAS Conference
H.J. Patterson Hall, rooms 2124 and 2130

All sessions are free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served.

Two days of roundtables and discussions focused around the theme of “Identity, Belonging, and Postcolonial Politics: Reflections and Futures.” Featuring scholars from UMD and around the DMV, including Keynote Speakers:

Jordanna Matlon

Associate Professor, Department of Global Inquiry, School of International Service, American University

Anita Plummer

Associate Professor, African Studies; Director, Center for Women, Gender and Global Leadership, Howard University

ATLAS is Africa Through Language and Area Studies: A hub at the University of Maryland for African and African diaspora studies, including African American, Afro Latino, and Caribbean studies.

Learn more and register

GRAND
CHALLENGES GRANTS